TASP IS EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE A NEW TRAINING OPPORTUNITY FOR AGENCIES AND ORGANIZATIONS:

WORKING SUCCESSFULLY WITH PARENTS WITH I/DD

This training is designed to build on professionals' skills when working with families where the parents have an intellectual and/or development disability.

Professionals will learn how to modify their skills to make reasonable accommodations in the services they provide, giving parents with disabilities a fair chance to parent.

TASP Trainers come to YOU, so your staff can learn together.

TASP is a leading nonprofit committed to successfully supporting families when parents have an intellectual disability. TASP's trainers have spent a cumulative 150 years in the field of supported parenting and have firsthand experience in the work.
