

A Chance to Parent: Advocacy, Policy & Practice 2015 International Conference
Location: Double Tree by Hilton in Downtown Memphis
Date: October 12 - 13, 2015

1. About this conference

The Association for Successful Parenting is hosting A Chance to Parent: Advocacy, Policy & Practice 2015 International Conference. The conference is conducted every two years to provide continuing education to social workers, psychologists, legal professionals, legislators, researchers, and advocates. Emerging topics and issues are presented alongside evidence-based interventions and future innovations in supported parenting. Proposals for this conference were solicited through an open Call for Proposals.

Early Bird Deadline is September 1, 2015. Fees will increase after that date.

This year's conference will provide content on three simultaneously offered tracts; professionals, parent and families, and research over a period of two days. Registration will be handled electronically through this online submission. If you would like assistance through this electronic process please contact Malissa Duckworth at 901-448-6598 and a hard copy form will be emailed to you.
